Collin County Medical Reserve Corps

The Collin County Medical Reserve Corps is a community oriented and community service organization. Our mission is to help Collin County in the event of a public health emergency. We also work actively in our neighborhoods and communities throughout the year in a broad range of events and trainings.

Mission: Help the community in a public health disaster

Objective: Provide medication to every member of Collin County within 48 hours of a nationally declared emergency

Disaster Task:

In the event of a disaster, the Medical Reserve Corps staffs 24 pre-identified point of dispensing or POD sites throughout Collin County. A POD site is a location where medications are given to the public. In an emergency, POD sites are activated, receive medication, and provide medicine to every person in the community within 48 hours of a nationally declared emergency.

Medical Reserve Corps Roles:

Medical Reserve Corps roles include leadership and planning, training other volunteers, administrative and office assistance, outreach and education for the general public, epidemiology, surge assistance, and volunteer recruitment.
